The new business of the Equitable last year, $81,577,057, was the largest over written by this company, and was more than $20,000,000 greater than was over written by any other company in a single year. Its rafie of expenses and laxes to new business, (2.3) two and eighty-one hundredlis per cent, was less than that of either of the other companies.

The antrpins of the Equitable, $43,700,201, is greater in smount and larger in proportion to the liabilities than that of any other company in the world.

Without a wice accumulation of surplus, an explaint or a financial crisis may compel a company to greatly reduce or even come making dividends to policy holders.

A materit increase of surplus is the Bare GPARAN-EE that neither an epidemic, a financial crisis, nor a further reduction in the rate of interest will ever compel the company to reduce dividends to policy-holders below their just expectations.

The Equitable's incurable of surplus last year, $1,020,576, was greater than the aggregate increase of surplus made by $41. The OTHER COMPANIES COMBINED.

In other companies, should deal of the companies of proof of death, without the sixty or holder shootener world. All policies in the Equitable's hundred surface in disputchede after the third year, and payable immediately in propent payment, sund with other companies.
